

HEALTH WEEK

Startup Campus Berlin Pitch Evening — Diagnostics, Prevention, and Sport

Date: 16.10.2018

Time: 17:00-19:00

Location: Hungarian Embassy in Berlin, Unter den Linden 76, 10117 Berlin

On October 16th, we will give selected startups from the fields of prevention and diagnostics the chance to present their innovative ideas in the Hungarian embassy to specialists from the healthcare, medtech and biotech sectors.

We are particularly happy to announce Prof. Dr. Craig Curtis Garner as keynote speaker, the director of SPARK Berlin, a mentoring program that supports early stage academic inventions with education, mentorship and funding, modeled after the SPARK program developed at Stanford University. All interested players in the healthcare industry, as well as investors are invited. We look forward to discussing the new healthcare solutions with you and to spend an interesting evening together whilst enjoying Hungarian delicacies.

Program:

16:45 — Doors open

17:00 — Welcome by the Hungarian Ambassador Dr. Péter Györkös and Startup Campus Berlin

17:10 — Keynote: Prof. Dr. Craig Curtis Garner, Director of SPARK Berlin

17:20 — Startup Pitches (to be confirmed) [6 min each, 4 min questions]

Kinect - X-ray angiography safer and more powerful by reducing contrast dose.
